

PAUL'S EPISTLE TO THE

GALATIANS

Paul pictures one growing from childhood to adulthood and compares that to one going from servitude (law) to sonship (liberty).

From Servitude to Sonship

I. Childhood is like servanthood (1-3)

He is only an heir de jure, not an heir de facto: he [is] an heir by legal right, but not yet an heir in fact.

- William Hendrickson

- I. Childhood is like servanthood (1-3)
- II. Adulthood is like sonship (4-11)
 - A. Its commencement/occasion (4-5)
 - B. Its confirmation/operation (6-7)
 - C. Its commitment/obligation (8-11)

From Servitude to Sonship