

“The Fate of the Enemy” (Zechariah 14:12–15)

Big Idea: The nations’ united assault on God’s city will be utterly torn apart.

I. The Doom of These Enemy Nations

a. The Horrific Scourge from the Lord (verse 12)

Numbers 12:10–12; Matthew 24:29–30; Revelation 1:7; 6:12–17; Isaiah 66:15–16; 2 Thessalonians 1:6–8; Revelation 20:11

b. The Panicked Attack of One Another (verse 13)

Leviticus 26:14–17, 38–39; Deuteronomy 28:25, 58–61; Judges 7:19–22a; 1 Samuel 14:6–15, 20–23; Ezekiel 38:21–23; Haggai 2:20–23

c. The Valiant Triumph of Their Victims (verse 14a)

Zechariah 10:3b–5; 12:2–9; Revelation 19:6–8, 11–21

d. The Utter Plunder of Their Treasures (verse 14b)

2 Chronicles 20:22–25; Micah 4:11–13

e. The Same Scourge upon Their Beasts (verse 15)

Joshua 6:16–21

II. The Significance of This Prophesied Defeat

a. A Complete Victory of the Woman’s Seed over the Serpent’s Seed.

Genesis 3:15; Romans 16:20a

b. A Full Satisfaction of God’s Promises to the Redeemed

Genesis 12:2–3; 22:17–18; Galatians 3:16, 27–29; Romans 4:13–17a; Matthew 5:3–10; Psalm 37:1–17