

PSALMS
of CREATION

Scripture Reading

PSALM 29

A SUMMARY OF PSALM 29

God's mighty power to thunder judgment on Earth is actually glorious and stabilizing for those "inside his Temple"
even though it is terrifying
for those outside.

HOW PSALM 29 RELATES TO YOU

1. The experience of unshakable peace begins when you acknowledge the mighty God behind every storm.

HOW PSALM 29 RELATES TO YOU

1. The experience of unshakable peace begins when you acknowledge the mighty God behind every storm.
2. It is only “in his Temple” that you can be protected from God’s mighty storm of judgment.

HOW PSALM 29 RELATES TO YOU

1. The experience of unshakable peace begins when you acknowledge the mighty God behind every storm.
2. It is only “in his Temple” that you can be protected from God’s mighty storm of judgment.

Hebrews 8:5 and Matthew 27:45-51 explain that Jesus is God’s temple. The old temple in Jerusalem was a small-scale, temporary model of him.

HOW PSALM 29 RELATES TO YOU

1. The experience of unshakable peace begins when you acknowledge the mighty God behind every storm.
2. It is only “in his Temple” that you can be protected from God’s mighty storm of judgment.
3. If you’re “in the Temple,” you have unshakably strong peace, and you can look at every storm and shout, “Glory!”